Dear Mary,

Thanks for the update; let's touch base again sometime this summer. By the way, can I stop by and say a very quick hello on Tuesday afternoon, even just for a quick handshake in your reception area? It'd be nice to put a face with a name.

Thanks,
Sean King

Hi Sean,

Thanks for your note. I spoke with the Senator about Senator D'Amato's letter regarding travel to Taiwan. He said would like to travel to Taiwan, when his schedule permits, but at this time he does not have definite travel plans. Hope this helps.

Thanks
Mary

Dear Mary,

Long time no "talk." We last communicated in March 2009 re the 30th anniversary of the Taiwan Relations Act (TRA). As you may recall, Park Strategies, LLC, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

Senator D'Amato plans to follow up his attached letter to Senator Inouye with a call, but I first wanted to check in with you on it. What's more, I know the Senate's out this week. Do you maybe five minutes to discuss? By the way, I'll be in D.C. next Wednesday, June 8th if you're available for a quick hello.

Thanks,

May 18th, 2011

Senator Dan Inouye
722 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510-1102

Dear Dan:

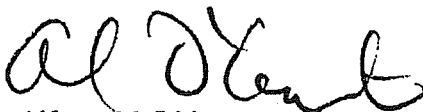

As you may know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States. Taiwan Representative to the United States Ambassador Jason Yuan tells me you once mentioned to Taiwan President Ma's former National Security Advisor, Dr. Su Chi, that you might consider visiting Taiwan. Please know how much it would mean to President Ma, Jason and me if you could make that trip sometime this year.

Hawaii holds a special place in Taiwan's history, as Republic of China (ROC) founding father Dr. Sun Yat-sen spent his formative adolescent years in Hawaii. As a young man, Dr. Sun returned to China inspired by the uniquely American ideals of Alexander Hamilton and Abraham Lincoln. The ROC, Taiwan's official name, is celebrating its 100th anniversary. It would thus be historically poignant if you could visit this year.

Your wife, Irene, as the former President and founding CEO of the Japanese American National Museum in Los Angeles, might also take great interest in Taiwan's National Palace Museum that recently underwent renovation.

You were one of my dearest friends when I was in the Senate and it would mean a lot to me if you ever visit Taiwan this year. Thanks for considering, and I'll give you a buzz soon.

Your friend,

Alfonse M. D'Amato
Managing Director

Dear Vance,

Thanks very much for your call back last Wednesday. As you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

I understand Senator Lieberman has no immediate plans to visit Taiwan, but that he looks forward to doing so before he leaves office. That's wonderful news. However, it's just come to my attention that Senator Lieberman will visit Singapore in June. As Taiwan's very much on the way to and from Singapore, it would be ideal if Senator Lieberman could even stop there for just a day or two en route to or from Singapore. This way, Senator Lieberman could see Taiwan and call on President Ma Ying-jeou before the January 2011 elections and be able to visit Taiwan in the 100th year of the Republic of China (Taiwan's official name).

Please let me know if this might be at all possible, thanks very much in advance for your kind consideration.

Best wishes,
